12. Probation.—An Officer appointed at the initial constitution shall be on probation for such period as the Reorganisation Board may prescribe. The period of probation so prescribed may be extended by the Controlling Authority at its discretion.

CHAPTER V

Maintenance

13. Filling of maintenance vacancies.—Posts in Grades I and II at the initial constitution, residual vacancies in other grades at the initial constitution and all maintenance vacancies shall be filled as follows:—

(1) Grade I.—By the deputation of an officer of Grade I of the Indian Foreign Service Branch 'B' who has completed three years of service in that grade.

Provided that on the recommendations of the Senior Departmental Promotion Committee of the Ministry of External Affairs and with the concurrence of the Union Public Service Commission, posts in Grade I of the C.P.E.O. not exceeding in number half the permanent posts in that grade may be filled from among permanent members of the C.P.E.O. who have completed not less than six years of service in a post in Grade II of the C.P.E.O. or in an equivalent post in either of the amalgamated organisations.

(2) Grade II.—By deputation of an officer of Grade II the Indian Foreign Service Branch 'B' who has completed one year of service in that grade or with the specific concurrence of the Union Public Service Commission, by any other officer of a Central Service Class I.

Provided that on the recommendations of the Senior Departmental Promotion Committee of the Ministry of External Affairs and with the concurrence of the Union Public Service Commission posts in Grade II of the C.P.E.O. not exceeding in number half the permanent posts in that grade may be filled from among permanent members of the C.P.E.O. who have completed 4 years of service in Grade III or in an equivalent post in either of the amalgamated organisations.

(3) Grade III and IV.—By promotion on merit from amongst officers, respectively, of Grades IV and V of the C.P.E.O. who have completed five years of service in the respective lower grade; or in an equivalent post in either of the amalgamated organisations.

Provided that if in the opinion of the Departmental Promotion Committee of the Ministry of External Affairs and of the Union Public Service Commission no officer of the C.P.E.O. eligible or suitable for promotion to Grade III or Grade IV, as the case may be, is available, one or more posts in grade III or IV, may be filled for such minimum period as may be necessary, by the deputation of officers, respectively, of Grades III and IV of the Indian Foreign Service Branch 'B'. Such Indian Foreign Service Branch 'B' officer or officers shall be withdrawn as and when officers of the C.P.E.O. suitable for promotion to the grades mentioned are available.

- (4) Grade V.—(i) To the extent of 50% by promotion from amongst officer of Grade VI who have completed at least 3 years of service in that grade or in an equivalent post in either of the amalgamated organisations.
- (ii) To the extent of the remaining 50% by direct recruitment as a result of the Union Public Service Commission competitive examination for appointments to Grade IV of the Indian Foreign Service Branch 'B' and of the Central Secretariat Service. The minimum educational qualification shall be a degree of an Indian University or equivalent.
- (5) Grade VI.—All posts the functions of which are those of Upper Division Clerks will be filled by promotion from amongst officers of Grade VII who have completed five years of service in that grade or in an equivalent post in either of the amalgamated organisations, and the remaining posts, which are those of stenographers, by direct recruitment through the Union Public Service Commission on the basis of Stenographer's Test.
- (6) Grade VII.—(i) To the extent of 50% of the vacancies from amongst temporary clerks, if any, of the Regional Passport and Emigration Offices who are at least matriculates and who have completed one year of service; and
- (ii) The balance of the vacancies by direct recruitment as a result of the Union Public Service Commission competitive examination for clerks. The minimum educational qualification shall be matriculation of an Indian University or equivalent.

14. Promotions.—(1) Promotions to Grades I, II and III shall be made on the recommendations of the Senior Departmental Promotion Committee of the Ministry of External Affairs, and to other grades on the recommendations of the Junior Departmental Promotion Committee of that Ministry.

(2) Promotions to Grade V and above will be made on an All India basis, while those to Grade VI shall be made on a regional basis, i.e., from amongst Lower Division Clerks in the Regional Office in which the vacancy arises. Promotion on a regional basis shall not however affect inter se seniority.

15. Fixation of seniority on promotion.—The seniority inter se of promoted officers shall be fixed on the basis of the merit list compiled by the Departmental Promotion Committee and approved by the Union Public Service Commission or other competent authority.

16. Seniority of direct recruits.—(1) The inter se seniority of direct recruits shall be fixed in accordance with their ranking on the results of the Union Public Service Commission competitive examinations.

(2) Where vacancies in a grade are filled both by promotion and by direct recruitment, the promotees and direct recruits will be interweaved in the seniority list in the proportion of their numbers, the senior-most promotee to rank first.

17. Probation and trial.—(i) Direct recruits shall be on probation for a period of one year in the first instance.

(ii) Promotees shall be on trial for a period of one year and may, on the recommendations of the Departmental Promotion Committee, be reverted if their work in the higher grade is not found satisfactory.

18. Training.—Direct recruits as well as promotees may be required to undergo such training and for such periods as the Ministry of External Affairs may, by general or special orders, prescribe.

19. Reservation of posts for Scheduled Castes and Tribes.—Vacancies which are to be filled by direct recruitment shall be subject to the orders of the Government of India issued from time to time regarding reservations of vacancies for Scheduled Castes/Tribes and other specified categories of candidates

CHAPTER VI

Terms and Conditions of Service

20. (1) An officer in Grades I to V of the C.P.E.O. will be liable to serve in any duty post in India to which he may be posted by the Controlling Authority.

(2) An officer in Grades VI and VII shall normally serve only in the office to which he is appointed, but may be transferred to any other office of the Organisation—(i) with his consent, or (ii) wherein the exigencies of service the Controlling Authority considers such a course to be necessary.

21. (1) Other terms and conditions such as those relating to leave, travelling allowance, discipline, pension, etc. will be governed by the existing rules or such rules as may be framed hereafter.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the provision of sub-rule (i) above, it is specifically provided herein that all officers of the C.P.E.O. will be subject to all provisions of the Central Civil Services (Conduct) Rules, 1955 as amended from time to time.

CHAPTER VII

Controlling Authority

22. The Controlling authority shall be the Ministry of External Affairs.

23. The powers of the Controlling authority shall be exercised:—

- (i) In respect of Grades I and II by a Secretary to the Government of India,
- (ii) In respect of Grades III and IV by a Joint Secretary to the Government of India; and
- (iii) In respect of other grades, by the Chief Passport Officer who shall have the ex-officio rank of Deputy Secretary to the Government of India.

CHAPTER VIII

Repeal

24. With effect from the coming into force of these Rules, the following shall cease to be in force:—

- (1) The Class I and Class II Emigration Officers Recruitment Rules 1955, published with the Ministry of External Affairs Notification No. S.R.O. 2120 (EMIR/1), dated the 1st October, 1955; and

G.S.R. 581.—The following draft of a further amendment to the Indian Boiler Regulations, 1950, which the Central Boilers Board proposes to make in exercise of the power conferred by section 28 of the Indian Boilers Act, 1923 (5 of 1923), is published as required by sub-section (1) of section 31 of the said Act, for the information of all persons likely to be affected thereby; and notice is hereby given that the said draft will be taken into consideration on or after the 30th June, 1959.

Any objection or suggestion which may be received from any person with respect to the said draft before the date so specified will be considered by the Central Boilers Board. Such objection or suggestion should be addressed to the Secretary, Central Boilers Board, Ministry of Works, Housing and Supply, North Block, New Delhi.

Draft Amendment

In the said Regulations:—

(i) For the heading of Chapter XI the following heading shall be substituted, namely:—

“Standard conditions for the design and construction of Economisers, Feed Pipes, Feed Heaters, and other similar vessels.”

(ii) After regulation 523, the following regulation shall be inserted, namely:—

“523A. Feed heaters and similar vessels fitted to feed pipes.—(a) Standard requirements, materials of construction and allowable working pressure.”

These shall comply with the requirements of Chapters I, II and III for riveted construction. If so welded construction, such vessels shall comply with the requirements of Chapter XII, provided that radiographic examination of welds may be waived, for pressures not exceeding 17.5 kg/cm² (250 lbs./sq. in.). For parts of vessels of composite construction, the requirements of the appropriate regulations of the above chapters shall be complied with as may be applicable to each such part.

(b) Working pressure.

Working pressures of all parts shall be determined by the appropriate formulae given in these regulations. Due consideration shall be given to the following additional points while calculating the stresses.

The stresses due to self-weight of vessels and its contents and any super-imposed vessel or other equipments, insulation and these due to static head, if any and pipes and other similar parts attached to the vessel.

(c) Safety valve requirements.

(i) Notwithstanding anything contained in Chapter VIII, every such vessel may be fitted with one safety valve. The valve may be set to blow at a pressure not in excess of 10 per cent. over the maximum allowable pressure for the vessel.

(ii) The aggregate area of the valves shall be not less than that of inlet feed pipe to the vessel.

(iii) The discharge passage shall be not less in area than $\frac{W}{CP}$

W is maximum weight of inlet water.

C = 25.8 sq. cm. (4 sq. in.), and P is the pressure at which the vessel is permitted to operate.

The safety valve shall in other respects comply with the requirements of Regulation 299 to 303.

The safety valve shall be capable of being lifted a distance such that the area of discharge edge shall not be less than the minimum aggregate area specified in clause (2) above.

(d) Inspection during construction, stamping and testing. These shall comply with the appropriate Regulations of Chapter I.

MINISTRY OF LABOUR & EMPLOYMENT

New Delhi, the 8th May 1959

G.S.R. 583.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 7 of the Employees' Provident Funds Act, 1952 (19 of 1952), the Central Government hereby makes the following further amendment in the Employees' Provident Funds Scheme, 1952, namely:—

In the said Scheme, in clause (b) of sub-paragraph (3) of paragraph 1, sub-clause (x) shall be renumbered as sub-clause (xi) thereof and the following sub-clause shall be inserted as sub-clause (x), namely:—

“(x) as respects road motor transport establishments covered by the notification of the Government of India in the Ministry of Labour and Employment, G.S.R. 399 dated the 24th March, 1959, come into force on the 30th day of April, 1959”.

[No. P.F.-II/3(13)/58]

New Delhi, the 11th May 1959

G.S.R. 584.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 7 of the Employees' Provident Funds Act, 1952 (19 of 1952), the Central Government hereby makes the following further amendments in the Employees' Provident Funds Scheme, 1952, namely:—

In Chapter IV of the said Scheme—

(i) For the heading, the following heading shall be substituted, namely:—

“Membership of the Fund”.

(ii) For paragraph 26, the following paragraphs shall be substituted, namely:—

“26. Classes of employees entitled and required to join the Fund.—(1) (a) Every employee employed in or in connection with the work of a factory or other establishment to which this Scheme applies, other than an excluded employee shall be entitled and required to become a member of the Fund from the beginning of the month following that in which this paragraph comes into force in such factory or other establishment, if on the date of such coming into force he has completed one year's continuous service or has actually worked for not less than 240 days during a period of twelve months or less in that factory or other establishment or in any other factory or other establishment under the same employer, or partly in one and partly in the other.

(b) Every employee employed in or in connection with the work of a factory or other establishment to which this Scheme applies, other than an excluded employee shall also be entitled and required to become a member of the Fund from the beginning of the month following that in which this paragraph comes into force in such factory or other establishment if, on the date of such coming into force, such employee is a subscriber to a provident fund maintained in respect of the factory or other establishment or in respect of any other factory or establishment under the same employer:

Provided that where the Scheme applies to a factory or other establishment on the expiry or cancellation of an order of exemption under section 17 of the Act, every employee who but for the exemption would have become and continued as a member of the Fund, shall become a member of the Fund forthwith.

- (2) After this paragraph comes into force in a factory or other establishment, every employee employed in or in connection with the work of that factory or establishment, other than an excluded employee, who has not become a member already shall also be entitled and required to become a member from the beginning of the month following that in which he completes one year's continuous service or has actually worked for not less than 240 days during a period of twelve months or less in that factory or other establishment or in any other factory or establishment under the same employer, or partly in one and partly in the other.
- (3) An excluded employee employed in or in connection with the work of a factory or other establishment to which this Scheme applies shall, on ceasing to be such an employee, be entitled and required to become a member of the Fund from the beginning of the month following that in which he ceased to be such employee, provided that on the date on which he ceases to be an excluded employee he has completed one year's continuous service or has actually worked for not less than 240 days during a period of twelve months or less in the factory or other establishment or in any other factory or establishment under the same employer or partly in one and partly in the other.
- (4) On re-election of an employee or a class of employees exempted under paragraph 27, or paragraph 27-A, to join the Fund or on the expiry or cancellation of an order under that paragraph, every employee, who but for such exemption would have become and continued as a member of the Fund, shall forthwith become a member thereof.
- (5) Every employee who is a member of a private provident fund maintained in respect of an exempted factory or other establishment and who, but for the exemption would have become and continued as a member of the Fund, shall on joining a factory or other establishment to which this Scheme applies, become a member of the Fund forthwith.
- (6) Notwithstanding anything contained in this paragraph, a Commissioner may, on the joint request in writing, of any employee of a factory or other establishment to which this Scheme applies and his employer, enrol such employee as a member or allow him to contribute on more than five hundred rupees of his pay per month if he is already a member of the Fund and thereupon such employee shall be entitled to the benefits and shall be subject to the conditions of the Fund, provided that the employer gives an undertaking in writing that he shall pay the administrative charges payable and comply with all statutory provisions in respect of such employee.

Explanation I.—For the purposes of this paragraph, "continuous service" shall mean uninterrupted service, but include service which is interrupted by sickness, accident, authorised leave, strike which is not illegal or involuntary unemployment.

Provided that an illegal strike shall not constitute a break in the service of an employee where his employer has condoned the break in continuous service due to such illegal strike or where an employee is continued in employment without prejudice to his continuity of service, either as a result of a settlement between him and the employer or an award.

Explanation II.—In computing the period of work for 240 days under this paragraph:

- (a) periods of involuntary unemployment caused by stoppage of work due to shortage of raw materials or fuel, changes in the line of production, breakdown of machinery or any other similar cause;

- (b) periods of authorised leave; and
- (c) in the case of a female employee, periods of maternity leave for any number of days not exceeding twelve weeks shall also be deemed to be days on which the employee has worked in the factory or other establishment.

Provided that subject to a maximum of 240 days, in respect of a seasonal factory or other establishment, an employee who, during the period a seasonal factory or other establishment was in operation during twelve months, has actually worked in the factory or other establishment for not less than 2/3rd of the period the factory or other establishment was in operation during those twelve months, shall be deemed to have completed one year's continuous service in the factory or other establishment.

26-A. Retention of membership.—(1) A member of the Fund shall continue to be a member until he withdraws under paragraph 69 the amount standing to his credit in the Fund or is covered by a notification of exemption under section 17 of the Act or an order of exemption under paragraph 27 or paragraph 27-A.

Explanation.—In the case of claim for refund by a member under sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph 69, the membership of the Fund shall be deemed to have been terminated from the date the payment is authorised to him by the authority specified in this behalf by Commissioner irrespective of the date of claim.

(2) Every member employed as an employee other than an excluded employee, in a factory or other establishment to which this Scheme applies, shall contribute to the Fund, and the contribution shall also be payable to the Fund in respect of him by the employer. Such contribution shall be in accordance with the rate specified in paragraph 29.

Provided, that subject to the provisions contained in sub-paragraph (6) of paragraph 28 and in sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 27, or sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 27-A where the monthly pay of such a member exceeds five hundred rupees, the contribution payable by him, and in respect of him by the employer, shall be limited to the amounts payable on a monthly pay of five hundred rupees including dearness allowance and cash value of food concession.

26-B. Resolution of Doubts.—If any question arises whether an employee is entitled or required to become or continue as a member, or as regards the date from which he is so entitled or required to become a member, the decision thereon of the Regional Commissioner or, where a State Commissioner is appointed, of the State Commissioner shall be final:

Provided that no decision shall be given unless both the employer and the employee have been heard."
